

La Banda

Back on the track.
The superhero saving classes from those teachers that slack
They ask, "How can I teach about brown and I'm black"
"Zapateros a tus zapatos"
Their Abuela said that
Well my nana said this, and she taught it to me
She said, "Those who can do, and those who can't teach."
Yeah my accent is weak and I can't roll my R's
But I can teach you about your story like I did ours
So I went down to LA
Linked up with up with J Ali
I said let's take Latin sounds and mix in hip hop beats
We created tracks for days it was 90 degrees
Damos en el clavo
This album got that heat!
We switched it up on every song like Tia Pelucas
With Santana, Machita and Tito Fuente influence
Your gonna love this like Maarimar loves Sergio
Man! This song sounds like El Chacal had clones

All they ever teach is Chavez in our history class
Unlike the cucaracha there's some change in that fact
No use in crying over milk that's spilt on the mat
They say Canta y no Llores, I decided to rap
I hope you caught that like copa y bola
These rhymes are real like Mexican soda
Pa'lante pa'tras ni' para coger impulso
This is the cure for your mind like mental menudo
You can have this daily not just the fin de Semana
Porque yo lo digo like you heard from your mama
And we got that in common my mom said that phrase to
And she made me promise that I would tell the truth
No sugar coating like fresh-baked pan
I'll teach you Aztecs and Simon Bolivar
Zoot Suit Riots and yes there's mas
I'm Vicente with the lyrics El Rey with the bars.
